COMEDIAN

BIOGRAPHY

John began performing standup comedy at the age of nineteen. In his first three years he won the Just for Laughs Homegrown Comedy Competition, starred in an hour long documentary for global TV, and finished in the finals of the Seattle International Comedy Competition.

He went on to perform at the Just for Laughs Gala where he was touted as saving the show. This earned him representation in Hollywood, but John chose to remain in Canada to perfect his craft before taking it to a larger market.

He has produced three acclaimed comedy albums, won over $40,000 in comedy contest money, and produced a comedy special. That same comedy special has recently been purchased for distribution by Comedy Dynamics in will be streaming worldwide in 2025.

John has amassed an impressive resume by entertaining corporate audiences across Canada and is the perfect addition to events of all types. He even produced a talk-show for the Calgary Stampede in 2010.

"If the TV and movie executives who audit Beuhler don't make him a star, the world will have a lot less laughter in it."

-Malcolm Parry, Vancouver Sun

"When it seemed that nothing could go right (at the Just For Laughs Gala) John Beuhler, a young, unheralded, Canuck comic took the stage. He slayed, and save the night."

-Bill Brownstein, Montreal Gazette

"Bill Maher, Margaret Cho, and Bill Cosby. John Beuhler is neither a big name nor an American-he is, in fact, a local-but he's just as funny as they are."

-Guy MacPherson, Georgia Straight
